STATEMENT:

It has been an honor and privilege to serve the people in the State of Alaska as a Superior Court Judge.

In my view, a judge should treat each person in the courtroom with respect, listen carefully to each person's concerns, and apply the law fairly and impartially. I also believe the judge should treat each and every case that comes to court as a unique and special case that deserves the judge's most careful consideration.

I have consistently been impressed by the level of dedication demonstrated by the many citizens in our state who have served as jurors. Each juror plays a critical role in our justice system, and is entitled to a judge who is accommodating, respectful, and courteous of each juror's needs.

These are the goals that I strive to consistently achieve each day. I truly enjoy the challenges and responsibilities of being a Superior Court Judge and seek to provide many more years of public service in Alaska.

Ratings are based on a one to five scale. Five is the best rating and three is “acceptable.”

Rating Scale

5.0 = Excellent
4.0 = Good
3.0 = Acceptable
2.0 = Deficient
1.0 = Poor

A survey of 1,495 peace and probation officers in Alaska rated Judge Gleason on twelve categories that are summarized in the adjacent graph. Peace and probation officers rated Judge Gleason 4.4 on a scale of 5 on overall judicial performance. She scored 4.2 or better in all twelve categories.

A survey of jurors appearing before Judge Gleason in 2002 and 2003 rated her 4.9 on a scale of 5 on overall performance. A survey of all court employees rated her 4.6 on a scale of 5 on overall performance. The Alaska Judicial Observers, independent community-based volunteer court observers, gave Judge Gleason a 3.8 overall rating on a scale of 5.

The Council also completed a background investigation including a court records check, a disciplinary records check, a review of conflict of interest statements submitted to the court system and a review of financial disclosure statements submitted to the Alaska Public Offices Commission. Attorneys, peace officers, court employees and jurors were asked to submit written comments about the judge. The Council actively encouraged the public to comment, both in writing and in a statewide public hearing teleconference.

Recommendation: Vote “YES” to retain Judge Sharon L. Gleason
